

BUCKSHOT spt

Buckshot is a liquid formulation designed for maximum uptake of the critical micronutrients. This formulation can be soil or foliar applied & is designed to promote and support vigorous root growth and development.

Functions and Benefits:

-

Application Rates:

SOIL SPRAY APPLICATION- Apply by banding in or near the seed row or directly on the seed at a rate of 32 to 96 oz. per acre.

CONTROLLED IRRIGATION- Inject at a rate of 64 to 128 oz. per acre.

FOLIAR APPLICATION- Apply on all crops at a rate of 32 to 64 oz. per acre.

ROOT DIP- Mix 96 oz. per 10 gallons of water. Dip plant prior to planting.

ROOT DRENCH- Mix 1 oz. per 10 gallons of water. Deliver solution to root zone.

BUCKSHOT is a trademark of Wedgworth's, Inc.

Wedgworth's, Inc. • 211 SR 70 West • Lake Placid, FL 33852

Packaging:

- 2 x 2.5 gallons per case

Small Particle Technology (SPT) reduces the particle size of nutrients allowing plants to better absorb them. The natural chelation process allows users to apply less fertilizer yielding better results for plants and the environment.